6. [] LIAISON Called Tom Graham, Deputy General Counsel, Arms Control and Disarmament Agency, and related to him the request from Forrest R. Frank, House International Relations Committee staff, for a short biographic sketch on all support personnel to the SALT Delegation which would be given to the House advisors to acquaint them with the people involved. I mentioned that I had discussed the matter with Howard Stoertz, NIO/SP, and he suggested that I call to see if the Arms Control and Disarmament Agency, in its role, would be the one to prepare such a classified paper. Graham felt that putting together biographic sketches on the support personnel would not be a good idea. Not only would it be an invasion of privacy, but it was not necessary to the functioning of the advisors. He also added that there is a book which they can obtain in Geneva which indicates the totality of the machinery and he is trying to reproduce that book for their use here before they go. He said he is having lunch with Mr. Stoertz today and would discuss the matter further with him.

9. [] LIAISON Rick Grey, in the office of Representative Mark W. Hannaford (D., Calif.), called asking for information regarding OPEC and the recycling of petroleum dollars, including investments in the U.S., imports, etc. He wanted the information for his own use in preparing his thesis for school. After checking with [] I called Grey back and told him our information was mostly classified and suggested that he call either Dave Curry or Don Curtis, at Treasury.
